

Review Test 1*

Questions 1-6 are about the following story.

1 Class had just started. My friend Billy was sitting right in front of me. We had been best friends since we were four years old. Billy was very funny and everyone liked him. Our classmates were amused when he joked around.

It was a very nice day outside and we had been playing together behind the school during 5 lunch time. There was a small pond and a soccer field. Billy loved to play in the pond. His mom always got mad at him when he came home covered in mud, but he would not stop playing in the pond.

Math class was extra boring. The sun felt so good coming through the window. I didn't want to be inside on a day like that. Billy and I wanted to skip school but we both knew we 10 would get into a lot of trouble for that. All of a sudden, I heard a strange sound. "Ribbbbit.....Riibbbbiit."

I was coming from in front of me. Then a girl screamed. It was a frog hopping up onto the teacher's desk. The whole class started to laugh and the teacher started to yell. I looked at Billy and he was smiling. He had snuck the frog into class and let it go. The teacher got the 15 frog and put it back outside, but we were all still laughing. It was nice outside but being inside wasn't so bad after all.
