1. Opinions of modern art
2. What modern art looked like
3. Why modern art began
4. Where art comes from

Modern Art

4 Art comes from the imagination. In the 19th century, some painters imagined new ways to paint. They inspired a new kind of art—modern art.

3 Modern art began when some painters were tired of painting the same way. Most people thought paintings should look real. However, these painters made people and other things look odd.

2 How did the painters do this? Some used odd colors. Others threw paint on canvases. Later, one even painted things like soup cans.

1 At first, people did not like this kind of art. They thought art should look formal. Then, things changed. Many people began to understand and like modern art.
