- (D) They are good for sharing feelings.

Hello everyonebody

Thank you for coming to the student council meeting. As your school principle here to answer the question that you have.

Some times it is difficult for student to tell me what they think.

Student council meetings are great time for you to share your feelings with me.

3. What does the librarian ask the students to do?

- (A) Study more
- (B) Leave the library
- (C) Be quiet in the library
- (D) Find a book about writing

OK everyone please remember that library suppose to be a quiet place.

I know alot of you a friends. But I would be very painful if would stay quiet.

Some student cannot study if people are making a noise.

I want a library to be a good place for everyone. So you need to respect each other.
